Blubber Bay Riot Inquiry Expected

Twelve Hurt and Five Brought Before Court After Fight Outgrowth of Strike

VANCOUVER (CP)—Attorney General Gordon S. Wismer today said he was forwarding to Victoria a recommendation for a judicial inquiry into the situation at Blubber Bay, B.C., where a labor disturbance Saturday night resulted in five men being arrested and 12 others receiving hospital treatment.

The Attorney General made the announcement after examining 10 affidavits alleging British Columbia police in the Texada Island town 80 miles north of Vancouver in the Strait of Georgia, had attempted to hire "strikebreakers" for the Pacific Lime Company and also refused protection to striking employees of the company.

TWELVE MEN HURT
POWELL RIVER (CP)—British Columbia police broke up a demonstration by opposing labor factions at nearby Blubber Bay Saturday night, and today five men were under arrest and a dozen including some of those arrested, were receiving hospital treatment for minor injuries.

Fifteen British Columbia police constables brought here last night, from Vancouver were on duty today. They include John Eldridge, deputy warden at Oakalla prison in Burnaby municipality. They reinforced several officers already at the scene.

Striking employees of the Pacific Lime Company at Blubber Bay and men still working despite the strike started a free-for-all on the wharf at Blubber Bay. The little Texada Island town is nine miles southwest of here and about 80 miles north of Vancouver.

Before the demonstration ended, police had used their riot sticks and tear gas. In addition to those still sent to hospital, a number of other men were given first aid for cuts and abrasions, and for hurts suffered from hurled stones.

These men were under arrest. John Hole, secretary of the International Woodworkers of America, Blubber Bay local, charged with inciting to riot. Robert Gardiner, described by police as "one of the strikers," held on a similar charge.

I. Stewart, Joseph Jacobs and P. Bertmann, all of Vancouver, charged with unlawful assembly. Police said these three were "pickets brought in from Vancouver some time ago."

In hospital here were Gardiner with cracked ribs; Jacobs with cuts and abrasions; Chin Mon, Chinese, with a hurt eye, and Bertmann with minor hurts. Harry Dicks, another striker, was treated for head cuts, but later released from hospital here.

CONSTABLE INJURED
Constable Ellis of the British Columbia police was being treated at Blubber Bay from effects of a "severe beating," doctors said. Half a dozen company employees who had been among the men keeping the plant in partial operation during the past few months, and who were also hurt, were receiving treatment, but their names were not available.

Condition of the injured men who were brought here was reported good today. Charges against the men held here were set to be heard this afternoon.

The Pacific Lime Company has been partly strike-bound for some months. Employees, members of the I.W.A., affiliated with John L. Lewis' American Committee for Industrial Organization, called the walkout in their fight for higher wages and better working conditions.

A British Columbia government-appointed commission arbitrated the strike, but the strikers did not accept its findings.

According to eye-witnesses for the most part passengers aboard the Union Steamship Company's coastal vessel Chelonia—more than 100 men were massed on the government wharf at Blubber Bay when the little vessel neared the dock.

Some of them were strikers, some of them men still working in the Pacific Lime plants, these eye-witnesses said. A small disturbance broke out, and before the police could bring it under control almost everyone on the small wharf was involved.

Stave Off War, Says Englishman

Sir Bruce Bruce-Porter Has No Patience With Those Who Would Rush in

"I don't think the Sudeten Germans are worth involving Europe in war," said Sir Bruce Bruce-Porter of London, who arrived here yesterday on his way to Australia.

He said he had no patience with those persons who said they would rather fight now and get it over with.

"If it can only be staved off for a year, something may be accomplished," he said.

Prime Minister Chamberlain, he felt, had been wronged in many quarters for his present stand. He recalled Chamberlain had definitely not said Great Britain would go to the aid of Czechoslovakia. What the Prime Minister had said was that if France became involved, Great Britain might be involved also.

"The last war was a Sunday school picnic compared to what the next will be," Sir Bruce said. "Then the killing was mostly between men, but next time women and children will be the chief sufferers, through bombing of cities."

Mussolini, he said, had been the "biggest fool" in Europe because of his support of Germany. "If Hitler gets the Sudetens he will then want Trieste. Then where will Mussolini look for friends?" Sir Bruce asked.

He believes Germany would not have a chance against the combined forces of Great Britain, France and Russia.

Sir Bruce, who is accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Johnston, intends to sail for Australia by Ms. Aorangi next week.

ABERHART STAND CALLED "ERROR"
Pattullo Says Suggested Conference Of No Value

Premier Pattullo believes the Alberta government has made "a grave error in not co-operating more fully with the Dominion Government in endeavoring to arrive at beneficial conclusions regarding Dominion-provincial relationships."

The Premier announced today he had so advised Premier Aberhart in replying to his proposal for a conference of the provinces without the Dominion Government.

The Premier also told Mr. Aberhart that he thought such a conference as proposed "would only create few dissensions and result in nothing of practical character so far as Dominion-provincial relations are concerned."

The contents of Premier Pattullo's reply to the Alberta Premier were made public when he was asked what his attitude was to such a conference.

Manion Not Coming

SOON TO VISIT HITLER AGAIN—Back in London, the usually impassive Prime Minister Chamberlain smiled and doffed his hat to crowds who wanted to know the result of his first talk with Hitler, as shown in the above picture, radioed across the Atlantic. Bearing the new British-French plan for Czechoslovakia, Mr. Chamberlain is expected to return to Germany Wednesday or Thursday to meet Hitler at Godesberg, on the Rhine.

Florida Warned of Storm

People From Jacksonville and Key West Take Precautions As Hurricane Nears East Coast

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A vast relief organization stood ready today to meet any emergency that may arise if a severe tropical hurricane bearing down on southeast Florida strikes the coast tomorrow morning, as indicated by its present movement.

With storm flags already flying from Jacksonville to Key West, the weather bureau urged all interests to take precautions against the blow which Meteorologist Gordon E. Dunn said might hit "anywhere from Palm Beach southward to The Keys."

He described the disturbance as of large area and moving unusually fast. This was borne out by a radio message received at the bureau here from the steamship Corralles, which advised it rode through "a severe hurricane in West Indian waters last night."

JAPANESE CLAIM GAINS ON YANGTZE

Forces Push Overland Toward Chinese Capital at Hankow

SHANGHAI (AP)—Japanese columns, pushing overland north of the Yangtze River toward Hankow, reported new gains Monday.

One force, aiming at the Peiping-Hankow railway down which it hopes to advance to the provisional capital, reported it had captured the village of Suhtieh, about 15 miles west of Hwang-Chwan and 45 miles east of the railroad.

Observers predicted the Chinese would make a stand somewhere east of Sinyang, on the Peiping-Hankow line 100 miles north of Hankow.

Thousands of Czech Soldiers Face German Line

Young Troopers Ready For Any Test, Says A.P. Writer

By RAY PORTER
Associated Press Foreign Staff
On the German-Czechoslovak Frontier Near Chastava—Tens of thousands of young, well-fed Czechoslovak soldiers, afraid of neither war nor work, are massed in formidable fortifications in readiness for shots which might signal a new European conflict.

Miles and miles of reinforced concrete and steel fortresses stretch across the mountain range which for centuries has been the natural boundary between Bohemia and what is now Nazi Germany.

Czechoslovak officers told me proudly "our defence line is stronger than France's Maginot Line. It is newer and more modern in construction."

Beginning at the frontier, which itself is only lightly guarded, the defence positions spread in all directions. They cover mountain summits, steep slopes and level, fertile valleys.

In some places soldiers guard field-gun emplacements—with guns already in place and ready for action—while peasants with long scythes cut hay a few yards away.

Czechs to Call For Full Hearing on New Scheme

Czechs Appeal to Soviet Diplomats Sound Out Russian Foreign Minister at Geneva on Possible Military Aid

GENEVA (AP)—Czechoslovakia was reported today to have asked Russian officials here for the Soviet Union's support against delivering over the Sudeten-German area to Germany. Edouard Heidrich, Czechoslovak foreign office expert, conferred with Jacob Surits, Russian ambassador to France, and was said later to have seen Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Commissar of Foreign Affairs.

Neither Russian nor Czech quarters, however, would say anything officially except that "this is a very delicate matter."

Persons in contact with both delegations said they understood the Czechoslovaks proposed that Russia try to induce France and Great Britain to stiffen their stand against Germany should Prague refuse to accept Reichsfuehrer Hitler's terms.

These sources hinted the Czechoslovaks also asked the Russian diplomats what chance there was of getting military aid from the Soviet Union in the event that Prague went to war and France and Britain refused to help.

If Germany should invade Czechoslovakia and the League of Nations should declare Germany an aggressor, Roumania—which separates Russia from Czechoslovakia—might be obliged to let red army forces through to Czechoslovakia. Poland, also a League member, would be in a similar position.

Whether President Eduard Benes of Czechoslovakia would agree to sacrifice his country on the altar of European peace or whether he would fight remained a question.

But in any event it appeared France was resolved to stay out of war.

The French minister at Prague was expected to convey France's decision at once to President Benes.

And immediately after the cabinet meeting Foreign Minister Georges Bonnet received the Czechoslovak minister to France, Stephen Ususky, to tell him of the course France had chosen.

BRITISH-FRENCH LABOR TO MEET

Call Goes From London For Conference on Czechoslovak Situation

LONDON (CP Havs)—Great Britain's National Labor Council—executive organ of the Labor Party and the Trades Union Congress—tonight invited France's Socialist Party and General Labor Confederation to an urgent joint meeting on the Czechoslovak situation.

The meeting, which would bring together the representatives of Socialism and Labor in Great Britain and France, may be held tomorrow, it was stated.

An immediate reply on the invitation was expected from the French Socialist Party, whose leading figure is former President Leon Blum, and from the C.G.T., which has 5,000,000 French workers in its membership.

Soviet Silent On Czech Issue

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia maintained an official silence tonight on the British-French plan for cession of Sudeten German areas of Czechoslovakia to Germany in a deal to save Europe's peace.

Some Soviet circles, however, contended developments proved what the Soviet press has been saying for weeks—that British Prime Minister Chamberlain's policy consistently has been to reach an agreement with Reichsfuehrer Hitler at Czechoslovakia's expense.

Although the present announcement did not specify whether the new rates applied to gold shipments from London to New York, authorities said the schedule undoubtedly would apply to gold, with the possibility it would go higher as the result of negotiations on individual cargoes.

France Suspends War Preparations

PARIS (AP)—It became known the government had issued orders to cease the nation's military preparations, which in recent weeks had placed an estimated 2,000,000 under arms.

The decision taken by the cabinet, in which the expected opposition of two or three ministers failed to materialize, coincided with a fresh outbreak of strikes in France.

Answer Neither Rejects Nor Accepts French-British Plan

CESSION PROPOSED

PARIS (AP)—Sources in close touch with Prague said today that Czechoslovakia would ask a full hearing of its case in a reply to the Franco-British plan to cede Sudeten areas to Germany.

Czechoslovakia's reply, drawn up this evening, was expected to be delivered to London and Paris tomorrow and will avoid flat acceptance or rejection of the French and British proposals to avoid war with Germany, these sources said.

The reply was said to point out the British Prime Minister, Neville Chamberlain, flew to Berchtesgaden to hear Adolf Hitler's desires, and therefore the western European democracies ought in all fairness to give equal attention to the Czechoslovak government's objections.

PRAGUE DISCUSSION

PRAGUE (AP)—The Czechoslovak government, after an all-day session, announced tonight the Franco-British proposals for turning the country's Sudeten area over to Germany were being "considered with all earnestness the situation demands."

The communiqué gave no indication of the trend of the Prague decisions.

However, informed political sources said it might be possible that the Anglo-French proposals would be accepted—but only as a basis for future negotiations.

The communiqué said: "The Prime Minister met with the interim parliamentary committee and made the following explanation:

"Notes of the conference of the British and French governments are now a subject of diplomatic negotiations. The decision of the two governments will be announced as soon as they have been formulated in a declared way."

Police and gendarmes patrols were stationed throughout Prague tonight to prevent demonstrations against the London terms. The government also appealed to the people to refrain from demonstrating against the Anglo-French proposals.

This action came after a day of increasing resentment throughout the country.

APPROVED BY BOTH

LONDON (AP)—The governments of Great Britain and France today gave approval, apparently unanimously, to a large-scale international deal to satisfy Chancellor Hitler and keep Europe's major powers out of war.

The cabinets of London and Paris approved the decisions made by their Prime Ministers yesterday, accepting the German Chancellor's demands on Czechoslovakia and proposing a system of guarantees which they hope will secure central European peace at the price of Czechoslovakia's Sudetenland.

DETAILS OF PLAN

Here is an unofficial outline of the Anglo-French solution of the crisis, which, informed persons generally accept as authentic:

1. The Sudeten districts of Czechoslovakia, which in district elections last May and June voted 75 per cent or more for the Sudeten German Party of Konrad Henlein, will be considered to have decided on union with Germany.

2. A new frontier shall be drawn to include all such districts within the Reich as far as it is practicable.

3. Districts which voted between 75 and 50 per cent for the Henleinist candidates shall be grouped in autonomous areas inside Czechoslovakia.

4. Arrangements shall be made by an exchange of populations to safeguard the liberty of German minorities which do not wish to come under German rule; there shall be similar arrangements for Czechoslovakia's Polish and Hungarian minorities.

POWERS' GUARANTEE

5. The new frontiers of Czechoslovakia shall be guaranteed by the great powers and neighboring states, and she shall be released from her alliances with France and Soviet Russia; in other words, she shall be an "independent, neutral state." Like Belgium, which has the guarantees of Great Britain, France and Germany.

Lloyds Raise Ship War Risks

Sharp Increases Include Cargoes Coming to Canada and U.S.

LONDON (AP)—Lloyds today issued new and sharply higher minimum war risks rates for shipping.

The new rates for shipments to Canada and the United States by way of the Atlantic from the United Kingdom are one-half of one per cent for the outward voyage. The rate is one per cent for eastbound voyages.

For shipments to the same countries by way of the Pacific the new rates for the outward journey are one-half of one per cent, and for homeward voyages two per cent.

Hitherto the rate both out and homeward by way of the Atlantic or Pacific has been about one-fortieth of one per cent.

SPAIN AND CHINA

Similar increases were decided on for shipments on other routes. Insurance rates on cargoes going through zones where fighting is actually under way—in connection with the Spanish civil war and the Chinese-Japanese conflict—are the highest.

Although the present announcement did not specify whether the new rates applied to gold shipments from London to New York, authorities said the schedule undoubtedly would apply to gold, with the possibility it would go higher as the result of negotiations on individual cargoes.

BRITAIN HAS RATIONING PLAN

LONDON (CP Havs)—Plans ready for distribution of food stuffs throughout the United Kingdom in wartime can go into effect on 24 hours' notice, Sir Henry French, director of the department of food defence plans of the Board of Trade, told 1,500 officials of his organization at a luncheon today.

Rationing will take place on a rational basis, not locally as in the last year. Meats, bacon, butter, margarine, fats and sugar will be among the first foods to be rationed, Sir Henry said.

Reaction in Britain Mixed

LONDON (CP)—The British press today viewed with mixed feelings the latest developments in the European crisis. Comment ranged all the way from an expression of firm trust in Prime Minister Chamberlain to downright opposition to the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia.

The Manchester Guardian, Liberal, said: "It seems likely that this week we shall reach the turning point between peace and the dreadful catastrophe of war, and as the hours pass we can only trust it will prove possible to preserve peace, and preserve it with credit to ourselves."

It added the British Government doubtless would remember "that since it has taken the 'initiative' in recent weeks—the Runciman mission, the Chamberlain visit, the present 'plan'—it is liable to be saddled with the whole responsibility, even if, whatever the decision is, it is shared by the two governments, French and British."

Commenting on the reported plan to cede part of the Sudeten territory to Germany, in exchange from a guarantee of the new Czech frontiers, the London Star, Liberal, said "nothing that happened at the Versailles conference revealed such cynical betrayal of the interests of a small nation. . . . Only a settlement founded on justice and fair play can give us any basis to hope for real peace now and for peace in the future."

The London Evening News, Independent, declared: "This country and the whole world trust Mr. Chamberlain, whose own calmness and confidence match well with his unquenchable determination that the world shall have peace. . . . If his counsel and good offices cannot keep Europe out of war, then nothing can."

The Yorkshire Post, Conservative, viewed the possibility of cession of the Sudeten areas to Germany with some concern, predicting a "further tilting of the balance of power in Europe on the side of tyranny."

"Signor Mussolini demanded a plebiscite," the paper continued. "This shows that the method will not be allowed to be confined to the Sudeten areas only but will be extended as to involve disruption of the state. The people of this country should be under no illusions as to the bitter consequences, economic as well as political, to themselves of such developments."

The London Evening Post, Independent, commented: "If, as may be expected, the French government urges Czechoslovakia to recognize that an irreconcilably disloyal Sudetenland is a liability rather than an asset and that French support can no longer be relied upon to oppose redrawing the Versailles map, President Benes will surely think many times before committing his country to war."

Henlein Party Welcomes Plan

SELB, Germany (AP)—Sudeten leader Konrad Henlein's headquarters were overjoyed today over reports from London that Great Britain and France had agreed to cession of the Sudeten areas of Czechoslovakia to Germany, with a plebiscite.

The first Sudeten mass meeting on German soil to explain Sudeten opinion and arouse patriots in Czechoslovakia will be held at Dresden tonight.

Deputies Rudolf Sander and Dr. Wilhelm Sebekovsky, Sudetens, and Joseph Paul Goebbels, German propaganda minister, are to speak. Henlein himself may appear.

MUSSOLINI WILL BROADCAST AGAIN

Italian Leader Tomorrow To Make Second Speech On European Crisis

ROME (AP)—Premier Mussolini, keeping pace with swiftly moving events of the European crisis, let it be known today he would deliver an address tomorrow to be broadcast to Italy and foreign nations—his second in three days.

Il Duce spoke yesterday at Trieste, proposing plebiscites for all minorities in Czechoslovakia "which demand them"—virtual dismemberment of Czechoslovakia—as the only way to European peace. He said "Italy's place is already chosen" in event of general war.

This remark was given authoritative interpretation today by Virginia Gayda, noted Fascist editor, who declared it meant Italy was ready to "take up arms at Germany's side" if the Czechoslovak crisis should start a European war.

Gayda wrote in his newspaper Il Giornale d'Italia: "Europe today is dominated by the Czechoslovak problem. In this problem are combined not only the bad problems of the peace (of Versailles), which demands radical revision, but a collision of the opposing currents which today upset Europe."

"London and Paris have learned that in defence of this policy (Premier Mussolini's demand for a plebiscite for all the minorities of Czechoslovakia), which renders homage to the legitimate right of German and other nationalities, Italy is ready to take up arms at Germany's side if a mad conflagration should explode over the absurd 'for or against Prague thesis.'"

The announcement today said Mussolini would speak at 5.20 p.m. tomorrow (6.20 a.m. P.S.T.), at Udine, near the border of German Austria.

ENTERS JUGOSLAVIA

Mussolini today toured Julian Venetia and crossed the frontier into Yugoslavia—the first time he ever has entered that country.

Accompanied by Count Galeazzo Ciano, his Foreign Minister and son-in-law, Achille Starace, secretary of the Fascist Party, and other aides, he motored from Trieste to Postumia, where he visited some famous grottoes.

He crossed the frontier on foot and was received at Rakek by Yugoslav civil and military officials for a brief exchange of compliments. He continued his journey, recrossing into Italy.

A military band and a large detachment of troops were massed on the Italian side of the border to form a background for the Duce as he stepped across the Yugoslav frontier. The Italian and Yugoslav anthems were played.

He was welcomed by the local mayor as a "friend of Yugoslavia," and he reviewed a detachment of Yugoslav troops.

"This is our frontier and this will remain our frontier," Mussolini said in his response to the mayor. "On this piece of Yugoslav soil I salute all Yugoslav authorities and all Yugoslav people."

Metal Prices Go Up in U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Leading nonferrous metals producers today boosted prices to new high levels since early in the year. Copper advanced $2.50 a ton and lead and zinc $2 a ton each.

The price of domestic copper was raised 1/2 cent a pound to 10 1/2 cents, best level since January. It was the second boost for the metal this month. In July there were five advances which raised the price from 9 1/2 cents July 1 to 10 1/4 July 29. The advances followed stronger markets in Europe.

Eating grasshoppers killed by arsenic poison is not likely to kill livestock, judging by experiments—a horse or cow would have to eat over a million poisoned hoppers to get a fatal dose.

Hitler Declares Trouble Must End

LONDON (AP)—The London Daily Mail, Independent, last night quoted Adolf Hitler as telling an interviewer that "this Czech trouble has got to be ended once and for all and ended now."

The interview, by G. Ward Price, was published under a Berchtesgaden, Germany, date-line. Price has been given access frequently to Hitler and Premier Mussolini interviews.

"The Czechs say they can not hold a plebiscite because such a measure is not provided for in their constitution," the Daily Mail quoted Hitler.

"To me, their constitution seems to provide for one thing only—which is that 7,000,000 Czechs shall oppress 3,000,000 minority peoples."

Asked his impression of Prime Minister Chamberlain's flying visit to Berchtesgaden last Thursday, the Daily Mail said Hitler replied: "I am convinced of Mr. Chamberlain's sincerity and goodwill."

The newspaper said Hitler described the Czechoslovak-Sudeten German situation as "a tumor which has got to be ended . . . now."

"It is a tumor which is poisoning the whole European organism," he was quoted as saying. "If it were allowed to go on it would infect international relations until they broke down in total collapse."

"This condition has lasted for 20 years. No one can calculate what it has cost the peoples of Europe in that time."

"It was the existence of Czechoslovakia as an ally of Soviet Russia, thrust forward into the very heart of Germany, that forced me to create a great German air force."

"That in turn led to France and Britain increasing their own air fleets."

"I have doubled the German air fleet once already because of the situation now prevailing in Czechoslovakia. If we fail to settle the crisis now, Field Marshal Goering (No. 2 Nazi) would be asking me to order it doubled again and the British and French would redouble and so the mad race would go on."

"Do you think I like being obliged to stop with my great building and development schemes all over the country in order to send

TOKIO (CP-Haves)—Rt. Rev. Samuel Heasley, Anglican Bishop of South Tokio, presided Monday at a memorial service for the late Prince Arthur of Connaught at St. Andrew's Church.

The British Ambassador, Sir Robert Craigie, French Ambassador Charles Arsene Henry, Foreign Minister Kazushige Ugaki and 200 British residents of Tokio attended.

In an editorial paying tribute to the prince, who died a week ago, the newspaper Asahi declared today that "Japan has lost possibly her last and best friend in Britain—a friend who understood Japan thoroughly."

Victorians Win at Duncan

Lorna Doull and Betty Cameron Big Winners at Highland Games

DUNCAN—Miss Lorna Doull, Victoria, clever highland piper and dancer, and 16-year-old Elizabeth "Betty" Cameron, also of the Capital City, whose dancing feet have already won her many honors, carried off the lion's share of the medals in the successful Highland Games program staged here Saturday in connection with this city's fair week.

Miss Doull, who won the under 16 amateur dancing championship for Vancouver Island at the Victoria games this summer, scored six firsts, two for piping and four for dancing. Miss Cameron took top honors in three dancing classes and also scored two seconds.

Helen Burgess, Royal Oak, was another who placed high in the meet. She won two firsts and a like number of thirds, while Victoria's Mable McAllister scored two firsts. Lily Andron from Vancouver won two firsts, two seconds and a third.

The program attracted a good gallery. The judges were: John McDonald and M. McKenzie of Victoria, and A. Cameron and A. H. Campbell of Duncan.

Col. Beck Seeks Friends for Poland

Leader Aims at Foreign Accord While Domestic Problems Increase

LONDON — Poland, situated strategically between Germany and Russia, and seeking to hold its peace with each country, may be a force for the good in Europe.

Certainly Col. Jozef Beck, Foreign Minister of Poland, is always on the move in the interests of peace for his country. There are few European capitals where his smooth, suave tongue has not wagged. He has been the most restless of all the colonels whom the late Marshal Pilsudski put into office.

PROGRAM URGED TO AID JOBLESS

Groups Meet in Vancouver and Draft Big Proposals

VANCOUVER (CP) — Wide-spread proposals to alleviate British Columbia's unemployment and promote social security were embodied today in resolutions passed at a week-end conference called by the British Columbia Federation of Unemployment.

Some of the main proposals passed in resolution form by the conference of the 53 nonpolitical groups represented at the meeting included:

A three-year program of road hard-surfacing; a $500,000 highway, reforestation and park development scheme as proposed by the Relief Project Workers' Union; that the Dominion Government accept full responsibility for unemployment and social security.

The Nanaimo branch of the United Mine Workers of America urged compulsory old-age pensions of $10 per month, payable at the age of 60. It also asked that an adequate workable unemployment insurance act be passed by the federal government and that a public works scheme be started to end unemployment.

COAL PROBLEM

The problems of Vancouver Island's coal industry were discussed by miners' delegates. It was stated that the provincial payroll in the coal industry, which totaled $7,000,000 in 1920, was now only $2,000,000.

One resolution sponsored by the miners' delegates asks the Dominion Government to investigate the possible use of pulverized coal and coal by-products to meet the competition of fuel oil.

Another urges the provincial government to give preferred use to British Columbia coal wherever possible, and to regulate the use of petroleum products.

A committee of seven was appointed to draw up a federal social security plan, to be provincially administered.

Two Avenues For Fruit Probe

OTTAWA (CP) — An inquiry under the Combines Investigation Act was suggested by Attorney-General Wismer of British Columbia with respect to the marketing of fruit, could be initiated in one or two ways.

Under the statute if a group of not less than six responsible citizens petition the Labor Department with a charge that a combine exists and with some evidence to support their charge, the minister shall cause to be made such inquiry as he deems necessary.

If conditions are such that it is not convenient or otherwise suitable that this formal application be made, and if there is reason for the minister to believe a combine is operating, he may, on his own responsibility, instruct the commissioner administering the act to conduct an investigation.

So far as could be learned from officials here, no formal application has been made with respect to the British Columbia fruit marketing industry. Saturday Attorney-General Wismer stated at Vancouver he had been asked to prosecute under the provincial Sales on Consignment Act, but the inter-provincial nature of the industry demanded investigation by a federal authority.

Convict Killed At San Quentin

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — A condemned convict, Frank Tucker, 34, was shot and killed by a San Quentin prison guard yesterday during an attack on another guard.

Prison officials said Tucker had been taken out of his cell in condemned row for a bath and attacked Guard William G. Lewis just before being locked in again.

Tucker is under sentence to be hanged December 2 for the murder of a companion, Antonio Martinez, in a brawl in Sacramento July 11, 1937.

WILL REMOVE JEWS

GENEVA (AP) — Poland has asked the League of Nations, it was learned at the week-end, to take charge of thousands of would-be immigrants, mostly Jews, whom the Warsaw government is anxious to move outside the country.

WINNIPEG DEATH

WINNIPEG (CP) — Major A. E. Spendlove, 48, president and manager of the Inland Shipping Company Limited, died Saturday night.

Broadcast From Ship

SYDNEY — The Australian interstate motorliner, the Kambilla is the only vessel in the world that carries a complete broadcasting station. Miss Eileen M. Foley, announcer in charge, prints the station's programs early in advance, so as to accommodate listeners in other parts of the world. The call letters are 9MI.

British-Eire Port Changes

DUBLIN (CP) — Before the end of October Great Britain will have completed her side of the Anglo-Eire agreement by handing over to Eire custody of the remaining two occupied ports of Berehaven and Lough Swilly.

Eire will have another month after that in which to pay the balance of the £10,000,000 (approximately $43,000,000) she agreed to give Britain in settlement of all the outstanding financial claims against this country. At the end of August, half the total had been paid.

Although the agreement came into operation only May 19 last, relations between the two countries were, perhaps, never more cordial than now. There is, however, a tendency in official circles here to stress the fact the agreement leaves still unsettled the major problem of partition.

This is being done because of fears — shared by the minority in the six northern counties of Ireland — that this issue might be completely smothered. Government circles urge there can never be a complete understanding between Britain and Eire until partition has been solved and the border removed.

The country has reaped substantial benefits from the agreement. Values of Irish agricultural exports to Britain have greatly increased. The ordinary farmer, however, complains he is not finding any great difference in market prices.

The British manufacturer on the Irish market so far has found no phenomenal increases in Irish purchases. Irish tariffs have been reduced, but British manufacturers still complain import restrictions are unduly severe.

ALBERTA TO SET UP CREDIT HOUSES

CALGARY (CP) — Branch credit houses will be established in Alberta and a scheme will be instituted making it possible for farmers to secure a bonus on the sale of a part of their grain and cattle, Premier William Aberhart told an audience at the Calgary Protestant Bible Institute yesterday.

First steps to set up credit houses throughout Alberta would be taken "within the next week or 10 days," he said.

Mr. Aberhart, while not giving details of the new credit plan of the system to be used in a farmers' bonus, said it would provide aid for the sale of Alberta-made goods.

"We shall have one branch credit houses set up and they will be handled on a similar basis to a credit union set-up," said the premier.

"We are determined to lower the cost of living," he added. "We are determined to give our Alberta producers an advance that will give them greater prosperity."

HOSPITAL ACTING HEAD SUSPENDED

Dr. J. R. McGeoch Relieved of Duties at Ontario Mental Institution

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — Dr. R. C. Montgomery, director of hospitals for Ontario, was in charge of the Ontario Hospital here today following suspension of two senior officers of the mental institution.

Suspension of Dr. J. R. McGeoch, acting superintendent of the hospital, was announced at Toronto Saturday by Hon. Harold J. Kirby, Health Minister. He had become superintendent in place of Dr. G. W. Stevenson, suspended earlier this month when a royal commission investigation into conduct of Ontario's mental hospitals was ordered.

Dr. McGeoch's suspension came after Friday's sitting of the commission, during which disclosure was made that the acting superintendent had released hospital records to Dr. Stevenson after his suspension.

Robert Barras, 77, a resident of Nanaimo for 28 years, died Saturday. He leaves his wife, three sons, Clifford, Nanaimo; George, Port Angeles; Robert, Blakeburn, B.C., and one daughter, Mrs. David Stobart, Nanaimo. The funeral was held this afternoon from the Westwood First Funeral Home, Rev. W. P. Bunt officiating.

What Is The Bargain?

IN LONDON, IN PARIS, AND IN BERLIN the impression today seems to be that Czechoslovakia is on the block with the cleaver poised ready to do its fell work. In Prague, however, there is no outward suggestion that the war-born republic will permit itself to be forced into docility. Thus the question remains—will Czechoslovakia fight to preserve her political and territorial integrity, irrespective of what attitude Great Britain and France may adopt, or will she capitulate? On the answer evidently depends the peace of Europe.

It may be taken for granted that the government at Prague is just as sensible of the desirability of averting war as are all the peoples of Europe. But it also is reasonable to suppose that the President, the Prime Minister, and the citizens of Czechoslovakia will want to know what store they can set on any guarantees that their country will be troubled no further by the great and powerful German Reich if they agree to surrender a part of their territory, territory whose inviolability already is supposed to be safeguarded by solemn treaty. It will not be unnatural for them to reply to any species of attempted coercion on the part of Downing Street and the Quai d'Orsay that they do not trust Reichsfuehrer Hitler.

To the authorities at Prague, of course, it was the same Hitler who talked with Prime Minister Chamberlain at Berchtesgaden last Thursday who marched into the demilitarized Rhineland early last year, who was actually applying his new technique of "boring from within" in Austria—preparing for Anschluss—while vowing, to all intents and purposes, that no such sinister designs had entered into his calculations. All this is written large on the drop-shoulder of the Czechoslovakian scene. Small wonder, then, that nearly 10,000,000 people within her borders are looking askance at suggestions that she alone accept the responsibility for the maintenance and preservation of peace in Europe. Not surprising is it that she is wondering what happened at Berchtesgaden to encourage Reichsfuehrer Hitler to hold out defiantly for what seems to be his minimum price for the postponement of marching orders to his mobilized forces.

Upon the man who controls the destiny of a country of about 75,000,000 highly-intellectual and highly-trained people, therefore, depend the immediate present and the distant future of European accord. Stripped of all decent consideration for the pledged word, ignoring the revolting behavior of the heads of two totalitarian states, it will have to be admitted that a major war within an uncomfortably measurable period can be avoided only by a recognition of the arrogantly dominant position into which Reichsfuehrer Hitler has been permitted to climb, through palpably amateur and weak statecraft, within a few years. This is not to say that the time has now come to refuse to bargain with the Nazi oligarchy at Berlin. It is to say, however, that if Hitler's lowest-price for a halt to the "Mein Kampf" program is the acquisition of Czechoslovakia's Sudetenland, it should also represent the maximum concession he will be granted, or the minimum contribution he will be expected to make to remove all dangers of a recurrence of conditions which for months past have disturbed the world.

To the statesmen of Europe an ultimatum should be directed. They should be told by the peoples of every nation—for the average German citizen is craving for peace as fervently as the average British or French citizen—that at no less peril than the jeopardizing of every form of social order they must either revive the League of Nations and put teeth into its machinery, or establish a substitute that will guarantee peace without peradventure. If all that such an institution, or undertaking, connotes shall come out of this latest business of totalitarian blackmail, the price, even to a partially dismembered Czechoslovakia, may not be too great.

How It Keeps Faith

WITHIN A FEW WEEKS IT WILL BE 20 years since the order to cease fire was given on the Western Front. In every city, town, and hamlet throughout the world men and women felt the force of divine intervention. They offered up their prayers in thankfulness. They breathed more freely than they had breathed for more than four years. The war to end all wars had been fought. Now read the following dispatch from London today:

"An estimated total of more than 10,000,000 men are under arms in Europe. The figures, as given by official or unofficial sources, follow: France, 2,000,000; Germany, 1,000,000; Soviet Russia, 2,000,000; Czechoslovakia, 800,000 to 1,000,000; Italy 450,000, and Great Britain, less than 200,000 with scattered reserves. Standing armies of smaller nations would push the total to above 10,000,000, it was estimated."

The statement can be added to the foregoing dispatch that within 24 hours of an outbreak of war on a major scale at least double the number would be under arms, with all the available machinery working to add tens of thousands from day to day, while some way would be found to provide what would do for money to meet current costs. And this is 1938—20 years after the world had pledged itself to keep faith!

Another Problem Area

DURING THE LAST TWO WEEKS WE have carried a series of special articles from our Ottawa correspondent, Mr. Norman Macleod, on conditions in some of the distressed areas of the Maritimes, which various writers from central Canada have been visiting. There, in what are sometimes referred to as Canada's neglected provinces, economic discontent is threatening to express itself in long-delayed practical upheaval. Leading Nova Scotia newspapers, such as the Halifax Herald and the Halifax Mail, are campaigning for a new deal for workers in one prosperous major industry, now decadent, and particularly the sturdy fisherfolk who were once the backbone of Canada's Atlantic coast.

From the reports of Mr. Macleod and others, apparently, no one can visit the Maritimes and study conditions first-hand without the realization that there is a community of primary producers who for years have suffered exploitation and economic disabilities, many of which political action could have cured. Political action might have protected the fisherman against the steam trawler; it might have protected the mining industry against the importation of foreign bituminous coal; it might have seen fair play between the steel and coal workers and the financial interests from outside the Maritimes that have "milked" those industries by successive deals of corporation finance.

Equally no one can fail to realize that the prevailing atmosphere in the Maritimes is one of renaissance. The people are awakening. They are coming to a sense of their own latent economic powers. There are indications they are undertaking to an ever-increasing extent to become the masters of their own economic destinies.

Two forces may be said to be responsible above all others for their awakening. One is the independent press, especially in the province of Nova Scotia. The first encouragement which the miners and fishermen received was when the Halifax Herald and the Halifax Mail championed their cause against the entrenched interests. These papers go into virtually every home in the province and preach the gospel of economic emancipation for underprivileged primary producers. The spirit of hopefulness which they have awakened among the miners and fishermen makes the crusade of these newspapers one of the remarkable chapters in the history of Canadian journalism.

The other noteworthy factor is the cooperative movement started eight years ago from Antigonish by St. Francis Xavier University and working in cooperation with churches of other faiths. It is teaching the primary producers of the Maritimes that their salvation lies largely in their own hands.

Indirectly the Antigonish movement is teaching the Maritimes primary producers that they do not need the politicians. At any rate, a loss of confidence in the old-line parties seems to be one of the most conspicuous features which outside observers notice on visiting these provinces. If the C.C.F. sends in effective organizers into the Maritimes during the next few months, it may find the ground fertile and well prepared for its appeal. There is a real danger that unless some major development occurs to change the situation—concessions to Maritime fish and other products in the new United States trade treaty might do it—the Maritimes, so far as the old parties are concerned, are lost. Hard hit since Confederation, the Maritimes apparently are no longer going to take it lying down.

Suggestion for a world series democracy slogan: No Hitlers, No Ruins, No Errors.

Storks, it is reported, are rapidly vanishing from Denmark. The chances are they have been migrating to Italy.

A dietitian states that large numbers of Europeans are not eating enough fat. Still, they are certainly chewing plenty of it these days.

The Japanese say they have found a way to keep their battleships from being top-heavy. Now all they need is a way to keep the cabinet from being top-heavy.

HOW FAR FORWARD?

From Ottawa Citizen

At Saint John, Dr. Manion, new Conservative leader, let it be known that he would not be deterred from advocating social justice by the rumbling protests of stand-patists. One passage from his speech was as follows:

"My answer to those who want to know where I am going is that I intend to go forward. I want to make it clear to them that I will not be diverted from that course by any self-sufficient group who want things to remain as they are, who will not recognize the danger to our political and economic system of standing still."

These words reflect credit upon the speaker. But it might well be noted that all those who want "things to remain as they are" do not belong exclusively to the crusty and, for the most part, comfortably established Tories who have their habitat in the business districts of the great cities. There are many people who share that view in other surroundings.

It might also be observed that "going forward" is one thing to one man or group and another to another. The great majority of people are for going forward. But how many are prepared to go forward far enough to end the unnecessary hardship inflicted day after day on hundreds of thousands of Canadians? That is the vital question. There are times in history when "going forward" according to standards of past eras is equivalent to standing still.

FACTS

LATELY THE RADIO has been having a fine time asking question of various celebrities on the national networks and laughing when the experts couldn't answer them. Apparently these programs have proved an outstanding success, for the public loves to see celebrities stumped and it loves to hear the answers to questions which cannot possibly be worth answering.

On a recent continent-wide broadcast some of the best brains of the country were asked, among other things, to give the philosophers' names rhyming with: Tomato, Barbara Fritchie, bottle, whisky sour, snooty dames. They were also asked "Why would it never be necessary for the man in the moon, if married to a chatterbox, to tell her to shut up? How many baseball players were on base when Casey struck out?" And a lot of others, equally preposterous.

Of course, most persons, however eminent, cannot answer such questions. It would be a sign of a disordered mind if they could. Minds which are all cluttered up with information like that, Ripley minds, crammed with useless knowledge, are never any use for anything. A good argument could be made for the proposition that the trouble with North America today, with the whole of white civilization, for that matter, is that it has crammed itself with useless facts, until it knows almost everything of no value and almost nothing of value; that it knows everything and understands nothing.

Why, the miscellaneous information of the average man today would stagger Aristotle, who was the original Ripley. The average man knows the age of Myra Loy and what Mr. Roosevelt eats for breakfast and the weight of General Goering's new baby and whom Miss Garbo is traveling about Europe with now. But if you want to know whether he can put his knowledge together and make something out of it, whether all the collective information possessed by the public can be assembled into something tangible and useful, just look about the world today: a world full of people whose heads are crammed with facts and yet a world run by mad men and at the mercy of megalomaniacs and cheap crooks.

Still, it gives people a strange thrill nowadays to be able to say what philosophers' names rhyme with tomato, bottle, whisky sour and snooty dames, or to be able to say how many men were on base when Casey struck out. And you will undoubtedly find that the best minds could not answer, whereas the fellows who can answer are as ignorant as native Indians of anything that matters.

Indeed, the native Indians, for their needs, were far better informed than we are and understood more. Each man knew enough to maintain himself, whereas if you or I had no one to provide electric lights for us, or provide us with gasoline for our cars, or operate on us for appendicitis, or sell us breakfast food in cellophane packages, we would quickly perish. All most of us know are a few useless facts while a few fellows carry civilization along on their shoulders.

(But I would like to know how many were on the bases when Casey struck out.)

PIE AND WOMEN

I HAVE OFTEN been puzzled by the reluctance with which some cooks supply recipes," remarks Richardson Wright (in "Another Gardener's Bed Book"). "Taste a good dish, and although the creator of it will beam under your compliments, she will often hesitate to supply the necessary information about it. This mystery has all been cleared up. My favorite cook explained it. She used to make the world's best meringue pies. Of late they have been only second rate. Tactfully, I inquired the reason.

"Mrs. Jones' cook asked me how I did 'em," she said, "and I showed her. The gift left me. It always leaves you when you show somebody else."

At dinner, Talleyrand was once asked what was the difference between a diplomat and a woman of the world. Instantly he replied:

"If a diplomat says 'Yes,' he means 'Perhaps'; if he says 'Perhaps' he means 'No'; if he says 'No' he is not a diplomat. But if a lady says 'No' she most likely means 'Perhaps'; if she says 'Perhaps' she means 'Yes'; but if she says 'Yes' she is not a woman of the world."

"One Chicago friend of mine," chuckles Floyd Dell (in his autobiography, "Homecoming"), "told me:

"My wife meets me at the door, always, with the question, 'Do you love me, darling?' And for 10 years I have been wishing to God I had the nerve to say 'No, darling.'"

Czech Problem Has Plagued Europe For Years

ELIZABETH WISKEMANN'S book, "Czechs and Germans" (Oxford), fastens these thousand years between 299 sweeping and fascinating, and at the same time authoritative and objective pages, writes Willson Woodside in Saturday Night. Bringing the story down to April of this year, it is the best guide to the Czech-German question which this reviewer has seen.

Here the Czechs are presented in everyday dress, without the halo which many writers, in their sympathy for the long Czech fight for independence, their admiration for the work of Masaryk and their resentment against Nazi Germany's attempt to steamroller over the little republic, have draped over them. Miss Wiskemann does not hesitate to admit that "the profound and bitter disappointment experienced by the Czechs in their years of struggle to wring concessions out of the Hapsburgs, developed in the mass of the nation—and very genuine idealists among them—a certain chauvinistic intransigence."

And one gets quite a new view of the Sudeten Germans. In our experience hardly more than pawns in Hitler's hand, they appear in the days of the empire as a highly politically conscious group, powerful in their own right, sometimes dominating Austrian affairs and always the most aggressive and Pan-German of the Germans of Austria.

Reading the story of the struggle between these two peoples within the Bohemian bowl, one is forced again and again to remark how old are the issues and the cries which have paraded daily across the front pages of our newspapers this late summer of 1938. Sixty and 70 years ago the Hapsburgs toyed with the idea of a "general settlement" of the Czech question; Sudeten Germans demanded the administrative demarcation of their territory; Czechs insisted on the unity of the Bohemian provinces.

FIFTY YEARS ago moderate Sudeten Germans and Czechs sought, and arrived at, a compromise agreement, only to see it rejected by intransigent radicals, as it seems the Hodza offer will be—only that time the intransigents were the Young Czechs. Forty years ago Sudetenland rang with the wild agitation of that earlier Hitler, Georg von Schoenerer, there were violent Pan-German demonstrations and the singing of irredentist songs and "civil war was narrowly avoided"; on that occasion it was because the Vienna government had granted the Czechs the right to use their own language when addressing the authorities.

In those days, as today, the Czechs watched themselves being caught in a tightening German grip, as the alliance between Berlin and Vienna drew closer and Pan-Germanism raged all about them. So they turned for support to France (to whom they are besides bound by cultural ties: "the Czechs are in several ways more western than the Germans") Czech Sokols declaring in Nancy, in 1892: "Our enemies are yours, and yours ours." And they sought the backing of Russia, their Slav big brother, so that Germany, straining towards a German Mitteleuropa, denounced Prague as the "Western Moscow."

To complete the parallel, then as now the Magyars lined up with the Pan-Germans mainly out of opposition to the Czechs, "ring-leaders" of the Danubian Slavs.

IN SUMMING up, Miss Wiskemann says that the issue today, as Masaryk laid it down, "whether some 3,000,000 Germans shall be without their own state, or whether 10,000,000 Czechs and Slovaks shall be swallowed up in an alien political community, no other alternative seems practically real in view of the extraordinary intricacies of the racial position in the historic (Bohemian) provinces." The transformation of Czechoslovakia into a federation of its component nationalities would, she feels, "leave it the helpless prey of any powerful and unscrupulous neighbor." The cession of the Sudeten-German districts to the Reich would "prevent the impossible problem of discovering a frontier," would "strategically annul Czechoslovakia's independence," and be a "catastrophe" for Sudeten industry. The swallowing of Czechoslovakia into a German Mitteleuropa would give Germany "precisely that hegemony to prevent which we fought the Great War," and would in no way settle the old class-race cleavage between Czech and German in Bohemia.

"The essence of industrial and social peace is to get rid of distrust and to foster faith in fair dealings."—Wickham Steed.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

To the public.—The directors of the Queen Alexandra Solarium for Crippled Children desire to ask you for whatever financial assistance you feel you would care to give towards the maintenance of the institution at Mahat Beach, 29 miles from Victoria, B.C., and operated exclusively for the care and cure of crippled children of British Columbia.

All members of the board of directors are, or have been, closely identified with the business and industrial life of the province and, as such, know full well the drain on business by taxation, donations and appeals, but they feel that to ask for support of such a cause is indeed a worthy one and in a class by itself.

Outside of the customary government per diem grants to hospitals the Solarium is entirely dependent upon the generosity of the public for funds. In the past we have received handsome donations for new buildings and equipment from time to time as required. The Solarium is not a member of the Community Chest of Greater Victoria.

If you feel that you can assist with a subscription it will be greatly appreciated by the Solarium, which is, at this date, administering to 70 small patients, and you can rest assured that it will be used in its entirety for no other purpose than the restoration to health of the crippled child. May we ask your kind assistance?

J. D. HUNTER, President, Queen Alexandra Solarium.

BONUSING PRODUCERS

To the Editor.—We guarantee the price of wheat, and why not? For 60 years we have followed a policy of taking money from the farmers and giving it to others. The heavens will fall if we reverse the process, but let the heavens fall! We must now bonus fish, furs, bees, tobacco, cut flowers, honey, pigs, lambs, cows, steers and tomatoes, or admit that definite discrimination is between one class of citizen and another. It is a fixed part of government policy—the discussion on that sentence ought to be interesting. Forget for the moment that discrimination always has been practiced. When the cost of the bonus exceeds the profit of exploitation we will have a change, and governments which have favored the industrial and commercial life of the nation at the expense of agriculture and the basic industries will become neutral.

Then we shall have a policy in which the government will not take sides with one class against another. That, by the way, is the only policy under which this nation can thrive and we shall come to it—not all at once, but the slow inaudible and noiseless foot of time brings many changes.

R. J. DEACHMAN, M.P., House of Commons, OTTAWA.

GUM CHEWERS' HABIT

To the Editor.—Gum chewing offers a lot of "palate pleasure" for a penny. We're not "agin" gum chewing, just opposed to the careless habit which many chewers have of tossing gum in all its goociness to the pavement, for an innocent passerby to stick to, or else of affixing it to subway banisters and nether sides of restaurant tables.

We wish to point out that recently a large distilling company ran a series of advertisements for the purpose of educating the public against the abuse of whisky drinking.

We recommend to gum manufacturers who profit handsomely from this national habit, a similar public-spirited gesture.

From the many millions spent on gum advertising, surely a small sum could be spent for the correction of chewing gum habits.

PRAIRIE STRAW STACKS TO BE NEWSPRINT

A new process for making high quality newsprint out of grain straw is reported by Dr. F. W. Hochstetter, who immigrated from Germany 35 years ago. It will hit the pulpwood newsprint industry in British Columbia and eastern Canada.

The process is said to produce a finer quality paper than that from woodpulp with elimination of dark water-proof spots from non-reducible matter in the straw.

The trade in Manitoba, it is said, can be supplied with 4,000,000 tons of straw and farmers would be paid from $2 to $5 a ton for it, increasing their revenue by $8,000,000 to $20,000,000 a year from products which are now almost wholly waste.

Mr. Hochstetter sees the day coming when paper making will be decentralized with small manufacturing plants set up near the towns where paper is used in large quantities.

There will be secondary products, synthetic cotton, rayon, cellophane, plastic products, mattress filling and gun cotton.

TANK CORPS REUNION

To the Editor.—Plans are underway for a reunion of the First Battalion, Canadian Tank Corps, to be held in Montreal sometime this fall. This unit was mobilized in Ottawa but its three companies represented chiefly Toronto, Montreal and other parts of Canada, and quite prominently among their number were several Americans who crossed the border to enlist in this branch of the service.

All former members are requested to communicate with either M. F. Badgley, Room 305, 1411 Crescent Street, Montreal, or A. R. Haskell, Room 104, 19 Melinda Street, Toronto, Ont., for further particulars.

GIVING CHRISTIANITY A CHANCE

To the Editor.—Our little town is under the spell of the Oxford movement which a few weeks ago paid us a visit. It just "won't down." Under the moving spell of this dynamic movement many men and women here "come to scoff, but remained to pray." It is a movement, not an organization, freed from the poison fangs of a stuffed-shirt, high-hatted ecclesiasticism.

In a group of lawyers and politicians at the courthouse a few days ago the Oxford movement was more discussed than law and politics. Will the churches cooperate? Will the movement supplant the churches? I asked an enthusiastic, forward-looking minister these questions. His reply was that the Oxford movement instead of supplanting the churches would rescue them from a threatened decadence.

Man and woman, too—are incurably religious. Though men are at each other's throats in Spain, China and Palestine, though the clash between employer and employee is bitter, yet amid the shambles, hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of the wing. Will the Oxford movement be the flaming torch to rescue a world reeking with hate, selfishness, dishonesty and lust? Says the "Rising Tide": "A revolution in a southern mill began when the owner applied in his own life Christ's principles of absolute honesty, purity, unselfishness and love. God gave him a concern for his men and told him to increase wages and improve conditions."

As has been brilliantly said, "It is not fair to say that Christianity has failed, in truth it really never has been tried." "There has never been but one Christian and he was crucified." Will the Oxford movement be the agency by which Christianity can really be tried? JOHN B. PALMER, Warrenton, N.C.

GRAIN OF PROPHECY

To the Editor.—Despite all this talk and bluster about the imminence of war in Europe, wheat and other grains have been sinking steadily in price in both the foreign and domestic markets. If there was really going to be war, prices should have been rising instead of staying so low, even in the face of bumper crops.

A. G. RICHMOND.

WAR SPECULATIONS

To the Editor.—In spite of the prediction I had the temerity to make in my recent letter that there would be no immediate war over the Sudeten crisis, there is always, of course, the possibility that the martial enthusiasm worked up in the German people by Hitler and Goering, may force an issue, as was the case in Japan, where the military clique forced the hands of the more conservative statesmen there, and China was invaded.

There is, however, this difference between Japan and Germany—that whereas Nippon faced a China only about 25 per cent organized, the Reich would face a 100 per cent organized and equipped Czechoslovakia, with the added fact of Germany being surrounded practically with a wall of steel.

Then there is the blockade, which would be a very decisive factor in the case for, in spite of the boasting of Goering, Germany has not the supplies sufficient for a war of any great duration, and people and troops would not keep their enthusiasm up very long on synthetic ration and a cold and unsympathetic world.

The possibility of revolution may not be so remote as some appear to think, and mine may not have been a bow at a venture for that "Zaharoff of finance, Sir Montagu Norman, when making a large loan to Germany, remarked that though the loan may never be returned, it was a cheap price to pay to ward off revolution.

So, taking all in all, the powers behind the throne will not doubt weigh everything well before allowing Germany to commit economic suicide.

I think, therefore, it would be safe to say we need not worry too much over all the din and excitement as men like Hitler have always to be in the limelight to keep their position and must produce something spectacular to bedevil the domestic issues and the greater the unrest among the people the greater the need of the "red-herring" stunts.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. You build up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sick and the world looks black.
A liver movement doesn't always go on the liver as well. It takes time, good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of nature but have no chemical or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Freshness—never keeps long. See.

A FEW CANDID WORDS ABOUT BANK EARNINGS

Half of one per cent, a year on total assets is not much of a profit margin for any business, corporate or individual.

Yet that is all the "velvet" there is in the business of Canada's chartered banks.

Banks pay interest on personal savings deposits. They charge interest on loans.

The difference is not all "velvet" by any means—for these reasons:

- (a) It costs money to operate a bank.
- (b) The cash reserves held by the bank earn nothing.
- (c) A bank must provide for losses.
- (d) Earnings on a great deal of a bank's assets are very low.

More than 25,000 people are employed in Canada's banks. In the last ten fiscal years Canada's chartered banks have paid in wages and salaries, some $176,000,000—purchasing power distributed over the Dominion.

In the same ten years banks paid in taxes to municipalities $40,831,930; to provinces $11,429,320, and to the Dominion, $24,027,324, a total of $76,288,574.

Banks have other costs, too: Rent on premises; stationery and printing; light, water and fuel; contributions to pensions and group insurance for employees. Depreciation on buildings takes a large amount each year.

Any money a bank pays—taxes, wages or other costs—can come only from the bank's resources—and must be paid in cash. No magic can produce it.

Banking is not all sunshine. It has its cloudy aspects too. Banks must stand ready to pay their creditors—the depositors and note-holders—a hundred cents on the dollar; but banks unfortunately cannot always collect a hundred cents on the dollar. They have losses, inevitably, and must set aside substantial sums to meet them.

A bank must keep itself in such a cash position as to be able to pay your deposit whenever you see fit to withdraw it.

Chartered banks are required by law to lodge with the Bank of Canada, or hold in Bank of Canada notes, five per cent. of their depositors' funds; but, in practice, they always carry about twice that percentage. Deposits with and notes of the Bank of Canada earn no interest for the chartered banks.

It is necessary also to keep a further amount in short term investments readily convertible into cash. The yield on such investments is low, firstly, because Treasury Bills and other short term securities mature at short date; secondly, because banks having no monopoly of money or credit—cash reserves of many industrial concerns compete for this type of investment.

Bank earnings depend very largely upon loans, but a bank can lend only when the customer wants to borrow.

Ordinary bank loans in 1929 averaged $1,342,000,000; in 1937 only $731,000,000.

More See Fair And Horse Show

Thousands Witnessed Events at Willows Last Week

A total of 36,683 persons paid admissions to the annual Fall Fair of the B.C. Agricultural Association which closed on Saturday evening.

More people saw the fair this year than last, when a total of 34,869 admissions were paid.

Many more than 36,000 persons, however, saw the fair this year, for there were many pass holders and thousands of youngsters who were admitted to the grounds free.

On Saturday a total of 4,110 persons paid admissions at the gate. Last year, on the closing date, there were 3,688 paid admissions.

Alderman W. H. Davies, chairman of the admission gate committee, reported an attendance increase over last year for every day in the week.

"We are well satisfied, and I think this has been one of the best, and as far as I can gather, the biggest fair we have ever had," said D. D. McTavish, president of the B.C. Agricultural Association. "We received every cooperation from the public and the exhibitors," he said.

A capacity audience saw the final rodeo performance and horseshow Saturday evening.

In the class for ladies' hunters, Mrs. D. B. Carley on Hurrah Kate, owned by Mrs. H. Jutson Fisher, came first. The Victoria Riding Academy was second with Chinango, shown by Miss Terese Todd, and third was R. G. Shanks' Chiquita, ridden by Miss Todd.

Nancy Jarlone on Kobby, entered by the Victoria Riding Academy, was first on the pony class, open to boys and girls 16 years and under. Minkie Ford on Patsy was second, and Skipper, ridden by Basil Plumley, was third.

Geoffrey Edgell sponsored the polo pony class. The riders wore polo costumes and carried mallets. Major F. J. Thorne on Bull took first prize. Miss Terese Todd on Romany Bay second and J. N. Findlay on Heather third.

Miss Nellie Macfarlane, riding her Ladimir, won first place in the Grafton broad jump, the obstacles being one two-foot timber jump with brush and 12 feet of boxes at one side. Jerry Aitken on Kitts Miller was second and Mrs. Carley on Chinango third.

Attempt Made to Aid Employees

Pearson Says Powers of Act Exhausted in Blubber Bay Dispute

Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, issued a statement Saturday, declaring that in the dispute between the Pacific Line Company and its employees at Blubber Bay, which ended in a strike by some employees, the labor department had done everything possible to deal with the dispute in a manner helpful to the employees.

The dispute was the first in which the government's new Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act was used in all its respects, going to a strike when employees of the company refused to accept the arbitration board's award.

Mr. Pearson's statement reviews the entire history of the negotiations from the time the employees made application for conciliation in January until the strike.

In his summary, Mr. Pearson says: "The action of the employees in rejecting the unanimous award of the arbitration board exhausted the powers of the labor department under the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act and while this department is always willing, under any circumstances, to give its assistance and bring about an understanding between employer and employees, in this case it has been shown to us that we cannot be any more helpful than we have tried to be in bringing about a settlement."

It was decided to continue with the series of bridge afternoons at members' homes during the winter months. The first one will take place at the home of Mrs. H. May, on October 5.

Island Tories Support Anscomb

Delegates from the Comox Central Conservative Association to the B.C. Conservative Convention in Kamloops this week were urged to support Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P., for leader of the party.

A resolution urging the taking over of education costs by the provincial government to remove the burden on the land was given unanimous support with the suggestion it become part of the party's platform.

The following delegates were named to the convention: R. N. Carey, C. B. Tudway, Heber Cooke and R. U. Hurford of Courtenay; D. R. MacDonald, J. B. Howes and Mrs. F. G. Liddle of Comox; William Duncan of Sandwick; Bob Grant of Fanny Bay; Ken Willis of Merville and John Perkins of Campbell River.

Domestic Science Winners at Duncan

There were 59 entries in the domestic science section of the Cowichan Agricultural Society's fall fair at Duncan, and in some cases the judges found it difficult to decide winners. Mrs. George Cook was awarded a special prize for the best loaf of bread in the show, and she also won two firsts for white bread, first for sponge cake, second for iced layer cake and a third for baking powder biscuits.

Mrs. Brian Hall won first for bread made with Five Roses flour; Mrs. T. Gibson for bread made with Purity flour; Mrs. H. Fieldem for bread made with Maple Leaf flour; Mrs. A. H. Peterson first for bread made with Mother's flour, and first for bread made with Buckersfield's Stone Mill whole wheat flour. Mrs. V. McLaughlin for nut bread; Mrs. R. L. Robson for raisin bread; Mrs. Brian Hall for plain rolls; Mrs. R. K. Cairns first for layer cake, six plain tea biscuits, cake made with special flour and pumpkin pie. L. F. Solly gained four firsts in the egg section.

Family Relief Payments Down

City's Expenditure On Aid Lowest On Record During August

Relief allowances given family units in Victoria last month were the lowest for August on record, but the allocation for single unemployed was the reverse, rising slightly above the 1937 figure, according to a statement issued today by the relief office.

Family units received $11,667.50 during the month, against $13,207.51 in August, 1937. The all-time high for the month was registered in 1934, when the disbursements to family heads here totaled $22,110.27.

Among the unmarried, costs continued the increase which set in during 1934, the total for the month being $5,170.98, a figure $24.47 above the $5,146.42 of August last year.

The running total for the year to date show costs to the end of last month to be $104,905.80 in the family division against $163,069.86 last year at the same time.

In the unmarried section the eight months' aggregate was $43,519, against $45,197.61 last year.

The city relief office was still unable to determine to what extent the city will be held responsible for the charges, since the provincial government has not yet informed Victoria of its decision on contested cases.

Recreation Rooms

The committee in charge of the work of the Citizens' Recreation Room met on Friday and reviewed the work for the year, and made plans for the winter season. David Leeming presided.

R. F. Taylor, treasurer, giving his report, spoke of the value of the work of the Community Chest in assuring the finance for the year, releasing the finance committee from the continued worry of raising funds. Presenting a financial report covering eight months, Mr. Taylor, said $1,605 had been drawn from the chest to the end of August. Expenditure during eight months was $1,605.36.

A. H. Hundleby reported attendance averaging the same as of last year, during the summer months, with good supplies of books and reading material received. A number of men had been assisted by calls for odd jobs, and two permanently placed. The secretary will be glad to receive calls for men for any kind of work by phoning E 6932.

The winter program was discussed, and plans for opening the rooms on Sundays made at the end of next month. The rooms are supervised by volunteer workers on Sundays, and helpers are already promised for November, December and January. Free concerts in the rooms will again be a feature of the winter program. Arrangements for these will be in the hands of the secretary. The possibility of providing shower baths for the men who have no bathing facilities was discussed, and H. D. Patterson and A. H. Hundleby were named as a committee to go into the matter.

W. A. McAdam Gets Bureau's Thanks

Thanks were expressed to W. A. McAdam, acting agent general for British Columbia in London, England, by G. H. Stevens, president of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, for his efforts in securing for the City of Victoria the Tillikum, a dugout canoe, which is now exhibited in front of Crystal Garden, at an informal conference between Mr. McAdam and directors of the bureau Friday. The acting agent-general was welcomed by the president, who expressed the appreciation of the directors for the fine manner in which Mr. McAdam had co-operated with the bureau during his residence in London.

Mr. McAdam recounted the particulars connected with the canoe upon receipt of the communication from the bureau, advising that the Tillikum lay somewhere in the mud on the banks of the Thames. The acting agent-general addressed a letter to the editor of a yachting magazine in London, and after two weeks received a call from Bywater Brothers to the effect that they owned the boat. It was half buried in the mud at Greenwich.

At first Bywater Brothers wanted to sell the boat, but finally agreed to make it a gift to Victoria after some persuasion by Mr. McAdam. It was shipped here by the Furness Line after the bureau had paid for minor repairs and the crating.

Mr. McAdam was also thanked for his active work in publicizing the city in the Old Country.

Theo Karle, American tenor, who is to be the assisting artist at the recital by Joan (Brownie) Peebles, contralto, at the Empire Theatre on October 4, has won encomiums from critics both on this continent and in Europe for his art.

The Washington Post critic said, after hearing him in recital: "The great natural beauty of Mr. Karle's voice; the poignancy of its appeal, its flawless cantilena, his good taste in phrasing, artistic discretion in the use of light and shade—in fact, his splendid singing received an ovation."

Well-known Pair Wed Today at St John's

Miss Dorothy Hartley Becomes Bride Of Mr. Ian W. Paton

In the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the two principals at St. John's Church at 2.30 this afternoon, Rev. G. R. V. Boister united in marriage Dorothy May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hartley of 445 Belleville Street, and Mr. Ian Wilson Paton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson Paton of 1971 Forrester Street.

For the service, the church had been beautifully decorated by friends of the bride in a color scheme of peach, pink and white with gladioli predominating. White flowers graced the altar, and the chancel rail was banked with flowers and tall standard baskets filled with autumn blooms.

Mr. Hartley gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a graceful floor-length gown of dusty rose chiffon with bolero, fashioned over a deeper shade of taffeta, with crinkle crepe in rose tone as the only trimming on the bodice. Her hat was an original shirton model of fine black straw trimmed with clusters of small flowers in pastel shades and worn with a nose-length black silk veil. Her corsage bouquet was of Talisman rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Her only attendant was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Irene Wilson Paton, in a becoming floor-length frock of aqua blue sheer crepe, with bolero of tulle blue satin with short tucked sleeves. She wore a "doll" hat of sheer crepe in matching tone, trimmed with satin ribbon and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Douglas Godwin of Sidney, V.I., and the guests were shown to the pews by Mr. Gordon Petticrew.

Mr. J. Jennings Burnett, the church organist, on the arrival of the wedding party, played the Swedish "Wedding March" (Soderman), and the "Lohengrin" Bridal Chorus as they left the church. During the signing of the register he rendered "Andantino" (Le Mare).

Following the service, a reception was held at the Oak Bay Beach Hotel where the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Hartley, wearing a gown of navy blue sheer in redingote style, a large picture hat to match and a corsage bouquet of gardenias, and by Mrs. Paton in a gown of ruby wine sheer crepe, a velour Gainsborough hat of Bordeaux wine shade and a corsage bouquet of Talisman rosebuds.

Peach, pink and white floral decorations were used in the hotel lounge and the wedding breakfast table was centred with a handsome three-tier wedding cake, flanked with tall lighted ivory tapers in silver candelabra. Later Mr. and Mrs. Paton left by motor on a honeymoon trip and on their return to Vancouver Island will make their home in Victoria. For traveling, the bride donned a Harris tweed suit in gold coloring, a close-fitting hat of quilted brown silk with feather mount, and a topcoat of tweed trimmed with a grey wolf collar. Her other accessories were in brown and her corsage bouquet was composed of yellow rosebuds.

Among the many gifts received by the young couple was a case of flat silver from the bride's associates in the Lands Department of the Provincial Parliament Buildings.

Millionaire Weds Fourth Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—Merry Fahmy, the 24-year-old blonde millionaire, married her fourth husband for the second time last night.

She and Russian Count Oleg Cassini, 26-year-old dress designer, who eloped to Elkhart, Md., two weeks ago, went through the elaborate 40-minute ceremony of the Russian orthodox faith in the tiny Church of the Holy Father—the second-floor living-room of a brownstone house in Harlem.

Merry, who came originally from Chicago and has spent most of her life abroad, inherited a patent medicine fortune.

Rules Wife to Testify Against Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—The ancient legal tenet that a woman cannot be compelled to testify against her husband has been out-moded in the United States by the modern principle of equal rights for women. Judge Murray Hulbert of the Federal Court, has ruled.

Judge Hulbert made the ruling Saturday in denying a motion for the discharge of Mrs. Ignatz Griebel as a material witness in the federal government's intensive spy ring investigation.

Mrs. Griebel was held after her husband, Dr. Griebel, a former Nazi leader, fled to Germany. He was one of 18 persons indicted on espionage charges and was regarded by federal authorities as a key witness in their inquiry.

All Holland was gay with music and orange bunting as the Dutch joined in honoring Queen Wilhelmina on the fortieth anniversary of her accession to the throne of the Netherlands. The army's part in the celebration was a monster parade in The Hague, which was reviewed by the royal family. Pictured above, as, with ranking officers of the army and navy, they watched the troops pass, are Princess Juliana (seated, at left), heiress to the throne; Queen Wilhelmina (also seated), and Prince Bernhard (extreme right), husband of the Princess.

On entering the hall Miss Peatt was presented with a corsage bouquet of red carnations and roses by Miss Ethel Brown, A.Y.P.A. secretary. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of the Melodians. During supper Mr. Kenneth B. Hincks, local president of the A.Y.P.A., on behalf of members, presented her with a silver cream jug and sugar basin suitably inscribed. ### Concert to Assist Solarium in Its Work

With the growth of its work, the Queen Alexandra Solarium is greatly in need of funds to carry on its healing mission among crippled children. Outside of the per diem grant from the provincial government, the institution is dependent solely on the generosity of the public. It does not come under the operation of the Community Chest of Greater Victoria.

To meet the pressing need for funds, the Women's Auxiliary to the institution has arranged a concert to be held under the distinguished patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Eric Hamber on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the New Thought Hall, Fort Street.

All members and friends are asked to co-operate in making the evening a success, by either selling tickets or bringing their friends. Tickets will be sold, prior to the concert, at the front entrance to David Spencer Ltd on Tuesday. The hall has been donated for the occasion and the artists are offering their assistance.

Mr. Douglas Flintoff will show moving pictures of Victoria and district, also several of the Solarium. Mr. J. W. Hudson, past president of the Solarium, will speak briefly during the intermission on the work of the Solarium.

Both vocal and instrumental solos are being arranged on the program as well as recitations and dramatic readings. Mrs. L. Muggford, president, is the general convener, and the committee includes Mrs. Ernest Eve and Mrs. E. O. Archer.

THESE SEEM TO BE JUST WHAT I WANT. BUT WILL THEY LAST?

IF YOU WASH THEM WITH THE NEW RINSO, THE SAFER "NO-SCRUB" WAY THAT WE RECOMMEND, THEY'LL WEAR LIKE IRON.

I KNOW FROM SAD EXPERIENCE HOW SCRUBBING WEARS CLOTHES THREADBARE.

WITH RINSO YOU JUST SOAK THE CLOTHES... THEN GIVE STUBBORN SPOTS A FEW RUBS BETWEEN YOUR FINGERS. RINSE AND HANG OUT. CLOTHES LAST 2 OR 3 TIMES LONGER WASHED THIS SAFE WAY.

YOU'LL FIND YOUR CLOTHES WILL COME AT LEAST 5 SHADES WHITER THAN ORDINARY SOAPS GET THEM... AND THE COLOURS STAY BRIGHTER, TOO.

THIS WAS THE EASIEST WASHDAY OF MY LIFE... AND MY CLOTHES ARE WHITER AND BRIGHTER THAN EVER. NO MORE BACKACHES AND RED SWOLLEN HANDS FOR ME! RINSO WERE GOING TO BE REAL PALS!

CUP FOR CUP, the New Rinso gives over 25% more suds than the old. Without the help of bar soaps, chips or powders, a little Rinso whips up almost instantly into heaps of lively, lasting suds that get clothes at least 5 shades whiter than ordinary soaps from tub or machine. Washable colours come bright and gay.

Rinso is recommended by the makers of 26 famous Canadian washers. Its creamy suds are grand for dishes and all cleaning. Grease goes in a flash. Dishes, pots and pans come sparkling clean without a trace of greasy film on them. Get the BIG economical household package today—a little goes a long way.

By PETE SALLAWAY

LIKE THE PIRATES of 1927, the last winning Pittsburgh combination, the current edition has faded at the end of the season and will be extremely fortunate to last. If the Buccaneers come down in front of the National League it will only be because they had nothing to beat. The Chicago Cubs should be out in front by 10 games, but like the others, do not appear to want the flag.

The Corsairs of 1927 were a much better outfit than this one. They defeated a New York Giants club that had Bill Terry, Rogers Hornsby, Travis Jackson and Freddie Lindstrom in the infield. The Corsairs of 1927 outdid a St. Louis Cardinal array that sported Jess Haines, Sunny Jim Bottomley and Chick Hafey. With Carl Hubbell gone, the Giants of today have little besides Mel Ott. After mentioning Johnny Mize and Joe Medwick, you place a period in discussing the 1938 Cardinals.

Joe Harris of the 1927 Pirates would outdo Gus Suhr. Harris was no great shakes defensively, but neither is Suhr. Glenn Wright and Pie Traynor had it all over Arky Vaughan and Jepp Handley. Al Todd and Al Berres are catching for these Pirates only because there is nobody else on hand. The Waners had everything in 1927. Certainly these Pirates have no Lee Meadows, Whit Kremer or Vic Aldridge. If it wasn't for the large bat of the recruit, Johnny Rizzo, they wouldn't be close.

If the Pirates don't extend this world series beyond four games, the Dreyfuss interests will be sick. In 1927 they built extra bleachers at a cost of $23,000. The Yankees had no trouble with a better set of Pirates than this one. . . . won in four straight games. . . . and inasmuch as most of the money obtained in the first four goes to the athletes, the series cost the club money.

What Pirate pitcher is going to stop the Yankees? Red Lucas isn't likely to. Neither is Cy Blanton, who ball players say winds up like he's going to knock the catcher down and then throw a pumpkin. His only hope is that the Yankees get tired waiting for the ball to get to the dish.

Bob Klinger, his arm is right, might do best of all against the American League champions. He has a nice hook and a good change of pace. . . . learned the fundamentals of pitching well from Branch Rickey, while with the Cardinals. Sometimes Russ Bauers makes one ball as good as the other unconsciously, perhaps. . . . high, low, inside, and outside. He doesn't know where the ball is going and neither does the hitter. When he has that unconscious control, he turns in a good game.

The Pirates are without a really fast pitcher, but speed wouldn't get them anywhere against the Yankees, anyway. The Yanks would put the slug on Walter Johnson at his best.

Torchy and Doug Set Early Pace as New York Race Opens

NEW YORK (AP)—The three teams of Peden brothers, Torchy and Doug, and Rebell and De Bacco and Saavedra held the lead in New York's 64th international six-day bike race in Madison Square Garden at 6 a.m. today. Torchy and Doug Peden of Victoria, B.C., were ahead on points.

Included in the field was the smart German combination of Kilian and Vopel. Although the European stars were well down in the standings today, they are certain to be in the thick of the race before the close on Saturday night.

Grads Register One-sided Win

Edmonton Girls Beat Canton 75 to 25 in International Basketball

EDMONTON — Edmonton Grads raced through Canton Engravers for a 75 to 25 victory here Saturday night as they opened a best-of-five challenge series in defense of the Underwood international women's basketball trophy.

The challengers, still showing the effects of an irritating five-day trip that ended only 15 hours before the game, were never able to match Grads' fast-passing combination play and shooting accuracy, falling behind 14 to 5 in the first quarter, 35 to 14 at half and 57 to 19 at the three-quarter mark.

Canton used only six of their eight players, but called time out in each of the quarters. Noel MacDonald, tall Grad centre, sparked her teammates to their big lead in the first half with 10 points, and counted 12 more in the third-quarter before returning to the sidelines. All her points were made on field goals. Etta Damp, diminutive guard reckoned the most accurate shot on the Edmonton team, counted 18 points, and Jean Williamson, a forward who played only about half the game, scored 13. Mabel Munton tallied 1 before being banished to the last quarter with four personal fouls. She was the only player banished.

Teams and scores follow: Edmonton—Northrup 5, Manton 12, Dunn 18, Daniel, MacDonald 22, Brown 5 and Williamson 13. Canton—Savona 11, Sponsella 14, Brunski, Stratton, Kaiser and Recht.

Defeat Victoria Rifleman 1,081 to 1,070 at Heals in Annual Competition For Butchart Shield

At Heals Rifle Range yesterday afternoon a crack eight-man Vancouver squad outshot a picked Victoria team, 1,081 to 1,070, to capture the prized Butchart Shield for the seventh consecutive year. Shooting conditions were not good for the meet. During competition on the 300 and 500-yard ranges it rained steadily, and a heavy downpour prevailed while the squads fired on the 600-yard range.

A remarkable 138 out of a possible 150 was chalked up by Sgt. J. Kier, member of the mainland team. That was the top individual score of the day. Lieut. G. A. Molecey of the visitors took runner-up honors with a 142, while Sgt. A. E. Asher, Victoria, posted the third best score, with 141.

Defeat Incogs Again to Finish Local League Cricket Schedule Without Defeat
Five C's today held the Victoria and District Cricket Association League Championship. On Saturday, before a good crowd at the University School grounds, the churchmen completed their schedule undefeated with a victory by 39 runs over Incogs, runners-up.

Opening at bat, the Five C's played a careful innings and fought slowly against dangerous bowling by Reg and Godfrey Wenman to a total of 125. Hepworth led the team with 34 not out.

The Incogs attempted to force the pace during their turn at bat, but in the poor light and with little over an hour to go, were all out at 86. Reg Wenman made a fair showing to score 36 and Jack Bryden had 15 for the only other double figure in the Incogs' column.

Dr. Pook Runs To Fine Form

Wins Feature at Willows in Fastest Time of Week

The fastest time of the Willows thoroughbred meeting for one mile was registered Saturday when A. H. Mayland's Dr. Pook won the Gulf Islands Handicap in 1:41.45. This was just one second off the track record, and indicated that after a week's racing the shifty surface is gradually becoming a bit faster.

Dr. Pook was given an excellent ride by Jockey Christensen. He stole a long early lead, then allowed Valerie Jean to draw along-side coming around the stretch turn, but when let down drew clear again by three lengths.

The Saturday crowd, largest of the meeting, was given plenty of thrills. In a driving five-horse finish Mrs. T. I. Mason's Tulvanna registered the major surprise of the day by winning the second at 12 to 1. She combined with Saxon King for the week's largest daily double payoff, $223.25.

The hurdle race was also best of the meeting, as the season's champion jumper, Vancouver Express, came from far back to score a close win from the greatly-improved Mohaiponi and Bondalin.

The Hawaiian bred Akahioa established himself as probable favorite for the marathon events next weekend by winning with consummate ease over one mile and three-eighths from Spanish Light and Just Mrs.

Jockeys Emil Sporri and Rex Young finished the first week of the meeting in a tie for riding honors with seven wins each. Saturday's riding laurels went to Wilbourn and Christensen, with two each.

Rowe Scores in Calgary Victory

Victoria Boy Stands Out As Calgary Brinks Defeat Edmonton

CALGARY—First-half parade of touchdowns, with a brilliant last-half defensive performance, brought the Calgary Brinks, under Carl Cronin, victory over the Edmonton Eskimos, 16 to 3, in the first Western Canada Football Conference game here this season, Saturday.

Paul Rowe, Johnny Mike Sullivan and "Buzz" Buzzard were the "touchdown kings" of the day.

The half-time score was 13 to 1 for the Brinks, the husky visitors from Edmonton scoring their lone point on a rouge just before the end of the first quarter. Scoring was completed in the fourth with a kick to deadline by the Brinks and safety touch by the Eskimos.

The Brinks dominated line plays throughout the game and displayed a versatile attack against the threat from the north, the Eskimos, in the second half, thrilling the 2,500 spectators with an aerial attack which did everything but score.

CAGE PROPOSAL Left on Table

No Action on Plan to Split Island; Cowan Again Heads B.C. Assn.

VANCOUVER — The British Columbia Amateur Basketball Association tabled a proposal from Victoria at the annual meeting here Saturday that Vancouver Island be divided into two districts each to be affiliated with the B.C.A.B.A.

The motion was tabled 30 days, at the request of Victoria delegates, until the annual meeting of the Island Basketball Association is held.

The proposal regarding the division of Vancouver Island was submitted by Saanich and Suburban Basketball League, and the Victoria Sunday School and Basketball League and the Victoria and District Basketball League.

The meeting then passed a motion that the B.C.A.B.A. in future have complete control of all play off games. Previously the home team financed the playoffs on 25 per cent of the gross gate.

George Bonner of Cobble Hill withdrew his motion which proposed that the president of the governing body alternate between Vancouver Island and the Lower Mainland each year.

OFFICERS

McTaggart Cowan of North Vancouver was re-elected president of the association by acclamation. Also re-elected were Art Stevenson of Kamloops, first vice-president, and Walter Hardwick, Vancouver, treasurer.

Joe Bolley of Vancouver replaced Ken Walton of Vancouver as secretary, and Gordon Woolridge of Victoria was elected second vice-president.

Only other business at the meeting was a discussion of Canadian Amateur Basketball Association activities by its president, Walter Hardwick.

Hardwick told the gathering that negotiations would soon be completed, providing for mutual recognition between the C.A.B.A. and the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

In the confusion, the New York Yankees found themselves in the world series.

The crack belonged to Dazzy Vance originally. But it is borrowed for the occasion because the Yankees clinched their third straight American Baseball League pennant yesterday by losing two games to St. Louis Browns, those lowly fellows who have an annual option on the cellar.

Everyone knew Col. Jack Rupert's hired hands were going to do it over the week-end, but they might just as well have "stayed in bed" while it was going on. Boston's second-place Red Sox had two games rained off their schedule in Chicago, and that made it mathematically impossible for any club to catch the Yankees.

Even if Gehrig and company should lose every one of its remaining 13 games, and the Red Sox should take all their 14, the Yanks would still finish on top.

CLIFT BATTING STAR

But that made no difference to the Brownies who beat them twice yesterday. Buck Newsom fanned 10 and allowed seven hits for a 4 to 3 opener win and Harland Clift was a ball of fire in the 8 to 7 afterpiece with two homers, a triple and six runs batted in.

This boosted the Brownies out of the league cellar, since the Philadelphia Athletics broke even in a twin bill in Cleveland. The Indians took the opener 7 to 3 and the A's climbed aboard master Bobby Feller for a 14 to 3, nightcap edge.

In the National League, Pittsburgh Pirates boosted their lead to 3½ games by winning and tying against the Phillies. Russ Bauers' four-hit hurling and Paul Waner's ninth-inning single meant a 1 to 0 opener victory for the Bucs; then the Phils held on for a 1 to 1 stalemate before darkness halted the afterpiece in five innings.

Lefty Vito Tamulis and the Brooklyn Dodgers topped the second-place Chicago Cubs 4 to 1 in the Brooklyn opener, and the Dodgers came from behind for a 3 to 3 deadlock in the five-frame nightcap. Third-place Cincinnati and fourth-place New York were rained out.

Detroit Tigers trampled Washington's Senators 8 to 1 in the only other game that escaped the day's downpour.

COAST LEAGUE
The regular Coast League baseball schedule was all buttoned up for another year today and San Francisco Seals, thanks to an 11th-inning home run by Seattle's Dick Gyselman, gets a crack at the pot of gold at the end of the Shaughnessy playoff rainbow.

San Francisco and third-place Sacramento took turns whitewashing each other yesterday. The Seals took the opener, 7 to 0, but dropped the nightcap, 1 to 0.

San Diego, winner of last season's playoff, missed getting in this season by two percentage points and a split doubleheader with second-place Seattle. Seattle with Dick Gyselman punching one out of the ball park in the last of the 11th, took the opener, 9 to 8, but dropped the seven-inning nightcap, 5 to 0.

Los Angeles Angels, who won first place and $2,500 as prize money for the regulation schedule, gave the browbeaten last-place Oakland A's a treat. They let the Oaks win a pair, 9 to 7 and 5 to 0. They made (Turn to Page 10, Col. 6)

"Y" Directors Hear Reports

The Y.M.C.A. board of directors held their initial meeting of the season at noon today with a record turnout in attendance.
The main part of the business dealt with was hearing reports from the various sections of the association.

A report heard from the department of physical education for June, July and August of this year, showed a decided increase in both the number of sessions held and the increase at each. In 1937 during the same period, there were 439 sessions in comparison with 468 of this year. A total of 5,519 was in attendance during the past three months with 5,155 as the total for 1937.

The report also gave accounts of trips taken by teams of track and field and swimming, and the results of each.

A comprehensive summer rehabilitation program was reported by the house committee. Renovating, painting and kalsomine work was done. Repairs to the roof of the building are at present being carried out.

A report on the exhibition booth at the provincial fair was also given.

Boys' work at the "Y" showed a substantial increase under the guidance of Viv Shoemaker. There were 180 sessions in comparison with 165 during the months of June, July and August of last year, and 2,269 were in attendance during these months this year with 2,158 being the number for last year's grouped attendance.

A detailed program of the summer camp at Glintz Lake was also submitted.

CITY GETS NEW SERVICE TRUCK

The new ladder service truck built by workmen at the City Yard on specifications drawn by Walter McMicking, city electrician, on a new Chevrolet chassis, has passed all tests satisfactorily and will be a decided boon to the lights department, Mr. McMicking stated today.

TAX PENALTY TO BE ADDED SOON

Extra 1 Per Cent On Outstanding 1938 Charges in City

Property owners in the city who have not yet paid 1938 taxes will have another two weeks in which to meet their obligations before they face the necessity of paying an extra 1 per cent on outstanding current charges. George O. Okell, city assessor-collector, stated today.

His warning was issued with a statement in which he expressed satisfaction with the percentage collection of 1938 taxes to date.

Under city regulations a penalty of 1 per cent is added to outstanding taxes on October 4, three days after payment of the current charges officially falls due. Another 1 per cent is added on November 2 and a third of the same amount on November 16. On December 2 the penalty is increased by a further 3 per cent, making the total extra charge on taxes not paid by that date 6 per cent.

Collections so far this year amount to approximately 52 1/2 per cent of the total levy and are substantially ahead of the corresponding 1937 period on a percentage basis.

Court Upholds Ban on Pickets

Interim Injunction Against Projectionists and Labor Group Sustained

The Court of Appeal today dismissed the appeal of Tenney et al (officers of the British Columbia Projectionists' Union and of the Vancouver and West Westminster Trades and Labor Council) against the interim injunction granted by Mr. Justice MacDonald to the Hollywood Theatres Ltd., Vancouver, restraining the appellants from picketing the theatre and publishing defamatory statements about the management.

The decision was handed down verbally at the completion of J. A. Campbell's reply to the case for the plaintiff respondent presented by Alfred Bull, K.C., quoting extensively from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff, Mr. Bull contended picketing had been started after the B.C. Projectionists' leader had threatened to close the theatre. Counsel further stated the projectionists' union were trying to enforce employment of union labor for which no clause was shown in the contract. Handbills, distributed by pickets, contained untrue information derogatory to the theatre, he added.

There was a substantial question of law and fact to be decided in a trial on the matter and the judge below had merely exercised his discretion in allowing the interim injunction. That ruling, he said, should not be interfered with by the Court of Appeal.

Mr. Campbell contended there was no material in the affidavit cited by Mr. Bull to justify an injunction. The granting of the injunction, he held, virtually defeated the Labor Act clause under which strikes and picketing is permitted.

The court, composed of the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Macdonald and Mr. Justice Macdonald dismissed the appeal, the Chief Justice suggesting speedy trial be taken on the main points at issue and Mr. Justice Macdonald stating the judge below had felt evidence submitted to him by plaintiffs had been sufficiently strong to call for the interim injunction.

Dr. Robert McClure of Red Cross Sees 10-year Conflict

"If no war develops in Europe, China will hold Japan in stalemate for 10 years," said Dr. Robert McClure, field representative of the Red Cross in China, who is in Victoria today to deliver a series of lectures.

"Japan will hold the coast all the time, because of her navy, but China will hold the hills, and fighting will go on, back and forth, on the plains between," he said. "China looks to bring Japan to defeat through bleeding her of her men by guerrilla warfare."

Dr. McClure said the people of

CANADIAN HOSPITALS

The International Red Cross has 14 hospitals along the Lung Hai Railway and in the Yellow River basin. Of these four are Canadian hospitals, operated by the Anglican and United Churches. Three more are staffed by Canadians.

"So you see Canada's interest in relief work in China is fairly extensive," Dr. McClure said. "We are settling down to a long war. We ask Canadians to supply money for these hospitals. We want them to feel it is a sporting gesture to the Canadians who are actually on the scene. It will take between $30,000 and $50,000 a month to support these hospitals."

"So far Canada's contribution has been one cent on every dollar in profits taken by Canada out of the present conflict. We feel we may even justly get five cents on these dollars."

Dr. McClure spoke before the Ministerial Association at luncheon today, and this evening he will address a meeting of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

In the Memorial Hall at 4 this evening he will talk to a mass meeting under the auspices of the local Red Cross in an endeavour to raise money for Red Cross work in China.

Son of pioneer missionaries to China, Dr. McClure is fast becoming known as one of the most dynamic foreigners in the country. He is a son of Dr. W. B. McClure, for 50 years medical missionary and professor of medicine at Chefoo University. He received his education at the University of Toronto, graduating from there with his M.D. in 1922. He took the renowned F.R.C.S. of Edinburgh in 1932, and as the only medical missionary in inland China with radium for the treatment of cancer.

From here Dr. McClure will go to England and return to China by way of India.

There were two trials of the matter in Vancouver and he was not seeking a third, appellant's counsel stated.

B.C. Electric Appeals Case

Seeks Quashing of Verdict Company Responsible for Fatality

The appeal of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company against conviction on a charge of negligence resulting in the death of John Thomas Smith, killed when struck by an interurban car on Granville Street, Vancouver, September 24, 1936, was opened by Senator J. W. deB. Farris, K.C., in the Court of Appeal here today.

C. Carmichael appears for the respondent Matilda Smith, to whom $12,000 damages was awarded following jury trial in Vancouver, over which Mr. Justice Fisher presided.

Mr. Smith was killed, counsel for the appellant stated, when, after crossing the interurban track on Granville between Nelson and Smythe, he stepped back into the path of an interurban car being driven at a rate of 15 miles an hour and was struck.

Senator Farris asked quashing of the trial court judgment on the contention there was no evidence to show the B.C. Electric Railway negligent, and on the grounds "the jury's apportionment of damages unquestionably was perverse." The jury found the company 75 per cent negligent and the deceased 25 per cent negligent.

There were two trials of the matter in Vancouver and he was not seeking a third, appellant's counsel stated.

The knot that fell on London last year is estimated to have weighed 75,000 tons.

GERMANS TELL OF CZECH TERRORISM

Newspapers Carry Many Stories of Alleged Attacks on Sudeten

BERLIN (AP)—Arocity stories from Czechoslovakia overshadowed London and Paris dispatches in Germany today. Both in the evening newspapers and the government radio broadcasts, stories were told of terrorism in Czechoslovakia against Sudeten Germans by Czechoslovak police and troops and even by hysterical Czech women.

Column after column in the newspapers was filled with stories of hair-raising experiences by fugitives. No adjective was too vile to be applied to the Czechs.

Official estimates now place the number of Sudeten refugees in Germany at 100,000, an increase of 13,000 overnight.

The Fatherland Front storm troopers and Heimwehr of Austria, which disappeared when Austria was annexed by Germany, apparently are going to furnish uniforms for the Sudeten German Free Corps, said to number 40,000.

The uniforms of the disbanded Austrian forces, which have been stored in Vienna since the annexation last March 13, will be flown to Bayreuth, Dresden and Breslau, centres of Free Corps mobilization, it was reported reliably.

POLICE CONTROL CROWD IN LONDON

Anti-Nazi Demonstrators Barred From Downing St. While Ministers Meet

LONDON (AP)—Police emergency squads were called out yesterday to keep thousands of anti-Nazi demonstrators from entering Downing Street, where British and French statesmen were meeting to weigh the Czechoslovak crisis.

Shouting "No concessions to Hitler" and "Stand by the Czechs," the demonstrators, some giving the Communist clenched fist salute, surged across nearby Whitehall Street into which Downing Street runs.

Mounted police galloped out from Scotland Yard and rode into the crowd, clearing a pathway for automobile traffic stalled by the demonstrators. Several persons were sent to hospitals suffering from bruises received in the jostling crowds.

In addition to the mounted police, 300 police reserves sped into Whitehall in trucks.

Miss Ellen Wilkinson, Labor member of Parliament, addressed the crowd, shouting:

"We say to Neville Chamberlain we do not trust you. We believe you went to Germany to fix up the sale of liberties of Czechoslovakia."

PRESS OF FRANCE URGED SETTLEMENT

While Daladier Conferred In London Papers Called For War To Be Averted

PARIS (AP)—French newspapers at the weekend generally called for France to do anything, accept anything, to avoid going to war.

The campaign broke out with record strength in the Sunday newspapers after a stiffer attitude had been shown by the press Saturday.

Political leaders appealed publicly to President Roosevelt to save peace in Europe, their calls coming at a time when Premier Daladier and Foreign Minister Bonnet were conferring with British Government leaders in London over Reichsführer Hitler's demands on Czechoslovakia.

Leon Blum, former premier, in an editorial under his name in the Socialist Le Populaire, asked in referring to President Roosevelt:

"Is it not time that he address himself to Europe with all the prestige of his person and with all the authority of the state whose moral or material support would be finally decisive in any general war?"

This editorial appeared at the same time as Le Petit Journal suggested: "It would perhaps be well if President Roosevelt acts in giving his counsel to Prague."

The Leftist L'oeuvre suggested the fate of Czechoslovakia ought to be settled by inviting Chamberlain, Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin and Daladier to a conference.

"Maytime" Shown At the Columbia

Songsters Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy Featured

"Maytime," based on the unforgettable Broadway play by Rida Johnson Young, comes to the Columbia Theatre today, enhanced tenfold by the vaster resources of Hollywood and the artistry of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer workmen.

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy are the stars and John Barrymore appears in his first role since "Romeo and Juliet." Lynne Carver, a screen newcomer, makes the juvenile feminine romantic part with Tom Brown.

Popular Cinema Team at Atlas

The screen's youngest "Mr. and Mrs." team, Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane, who are plighted, incidentally, to become such a team in real life within the next year—comes to the screen of the Atlas Theatre today in "Men Are Such Fools," the second of the pictures in which the Warner Bros. Studio cast them opposite each other.

"Men Are Such Fools" is an other tale of the efforts made by a young couple, genuinely in love, to solve a problem of human relationships which for a time seriously threatens to make it impossible for them to achieve a happy wedded life.

Others in the cast are Humphrey Bogart, Hugh Herbert, Johnnie Davis, Penny Singleton, Mona Barrie, Marcia Raiston, Donald Briggs, and Gene and Kathleen Lockhart.

Little Theatre to Open September 20

The Victoria Little Theatre Association will open its 1938-39 season on Tuesday evening. The first meeting will be held in the clubrooms, 1249 Rockland Avenue, at 8, and will consist of plans for the coming season, the election of the general committee, to be followed by a musical program and refreshments.

The association, which offers to amateur thespians a chance to partake in all its round of activities relative to the theatre, will welcome new members. Several major productions are scheduled, with a number of short plays for monthly meetings. All present members are urged to bring any friends who are interested in the Little Theatre.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Stop-loss selling drove Winnipeg wheat futures three cents lower today, and short-covering in late trading on unfavorable Czechoslovakian reports failed to wipe out losses.

Final quotations were 2½ to 2½ cents lower, October at 63½, November 64½, December 63½ and May 66½ to 66½.

A more optimistic outlook for peace in Europe and lower outside markets brought out a general selling flurry at the start. Then dealings thinned until the last hour, when trading became nervous on reports the Czechoslovak government will refuse the Anglo-French peace terms. Virtually no Canadian wheat export business could be confirmed.

Liverpool fell off from a steady open to close 1½ to 2d, lower Buenos Aires was two cents down at noon, and Chicago about two lower.

Cash wheat dealings were quiet, with spread generally unchanged. Coarse grain dealings were slow. A few flax orders in a thin market resulted in its irregular trend, 2 to 1½ cents lower.

Five Famous Poets

1—JOHN MILTON

One day, while I was visiting a cousin in England, she said to me, "John Milton's one-time home is at Chalfont-St. Giles, only a few miles from here. Would you like to see it?"

Milton dictating "Paradise Lost" to one of his daughters.

"I certainly would," I replied, and in a little while we were on our way to one of England's shrines, the home of the man who ranks as probably second greatest of English poets. It was a little house, but it was solidly built, and has lasted nearly three centuries since the poet lived there. Going into the main room downstairs, I saw a large fireplace. Seated in that room, Milton used to dedicate poems to his daughters—after he went blind at the age of 44.

Milton's most famous poem is known as "Paradise Lost." It is a long one, containing many thousands of words. It deals largely with events described in the Bible, but also contains personal thoughts of the man who wrote it.

Satan is one of the leading characters in the poem. In heaven he had been the archangel Lucifer, but he had rebelled and had been cast into hell.

Milton tries to give a picture of hell. It was to be reached after a nine days' fall from heaven. It was a great pit containing a lake of fire, with a rocky desert around it, also swamps and a land of snow and ice.

The poet tells us Satan was the master of a host of fallen angels "with a million swords" and "10,000 banners" in their army. All of those in hell were angry about their fate, and wanted to take revenge because they had been cast there. They decided to invade heaven, and took part in a battle in which cannons were fired. The army of Satan was at last driven back by the sight of Jesus.

Adam and Eve are described in their paradise—the Garden of Eden. They are happy until a serpent crawls in. It is a talking snake, Satan in disguise. The snake tempts Eve to eat the apple of forbidden knowledge. She and Adam both eat of the apple, and as a result lose their right to live in the Garden of Paradise. Satan has taken his revenge!

That is a very short account of "Paradise Lost," but it helps explain the meaning of the name. After Milton wrote the poem, he became more famous than he had been before. He followed it with another work, "Paradise Regained."

Milton's greatest poems were written while he was blind, and this fact shows how well a brave man can work after sorrow comes to him.

Milton was a Puritan, and a friend of Oliver Cromwell. He held a public office while Cromwell was in power. His death took place in 1674, at the age of 65.

The publisher of "Paradise Lost" paid Milton £10 (about $50 at present exchange) for the right to print it as a book. That was not a large reward, but Milton was thinking mainly about his work. He wanted to give the world the poetry which sprang from his nature.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have been married 11 years, have a husband I love, a pretty home, two beautiful babies, and my happiness would be complete except that my husband doesn't get along with my mother. No real quarrel, they just can't agree. I always go to my mother's once a week to spend the day, and she always insists that I stay for supper. I call my husband to come out and there is always a row about it. Don't you think that for my sake he ought to be willing to come? What shall I do?

RUTH.

Answer: Of course, your husband should be willing to make this slight sacrifice of going to your mother's and making himself agreeable if it pleases you and makes you happy, but if he won't, he won't, and it is up to you not to make too much of a mountain out of a very small molehill.

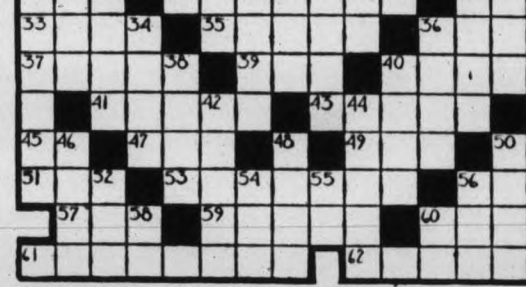

A woman of intelligence soon finds out that she has to take her husband as he is and not as she should be. When she accepts him on this basis, and makes the best of him, her troubles are simplified, because then she stops battering herself against a stone wall, which only bruises her and does no good.

So in your particular case, eliminate the very fruitful subject of argument and quarrel by frankly telling your mother that your husband is tired after his day's work and wants to come to his own home.

Quit asking him to go to your mother's for supper. Do your visiting in the daytime. Go twice a week if you want to, but don't stay to supper and don't coerce hubby into going against his will.

If you will do this and leave him free to come and go as he likes, he will probably like to go now and then. One of the reasons why husbands have such a distaste for their wives' families is because their wives are always ramming them down their throats.

Electric Eye at Launching

85,000-ton Liner Queen Elizabeth, To Be Floated September 27, Will Travel Only 200 Feet to Clyde Water

GLASGOW (CP)—Close to 40,000 tons of steel will slide into the River Clyde when the liner Queen Elizabeth is launched here September 27.

The giant liner, about 85,000 tons, will be launched at an angle, and it is estimated she will travel only 200 feet in the water before coming to rest. The launching presents a difficult problem, for the width of the river is less than the length of the Queen Elizabeth, 1,031 feet from stern to stem.

Preliminary experiments have been conducted with a 200-inch model in the builder's tank. Information as to velocities, stresses and buoyancy has been obtained in a series of test launches with the model.

A combination of electric eye and moving picture apparatus will be used at the actual ceremony. The electric eye was used during the tests, registering the time the model took to clear the slip and stop moving.

When the launching takes place the electric eye, placed opposite the stern, will photograph on a motion picture film the movement of the hull. Any hitch or deviation from normal would thus be registered instantaneously. This data is expected to prove of value in subsequent launches.

HOW TO OVERCOME
ITCHING PILES

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores—or any drugstore—a package of Hemoroid and use as directed. This Hemoroid is a physician's prescription and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

Boykin Takes Discovery Cup

Aquila First in Final,
But R. S. Blandy's Star
Took Series on Points

Boykin, with 10 points to her credit, was declared winner of the series of three races by international stars for the Discovery Island cup following the completion of the last event yesterday. Mintaka received seven points and Aura and Aquila five each for the series.

Starters in yesterday's race were Aquila, A. C. Packford; Aura, I. C. Barltrop; Boykin, R. S. Blandy, and Mintaka, W. T. M. Barrett.

The race was really between Boykin and Mintaka, as Aquila and Aura had failed to finish in a previous race. The stars got over the starting line at 10.45 yesterday morning in a light southeast breeze. It was foggy to seaward.

All skippers at the commencement decided to take the north-about course, but Mintaka got so far behind that Barrett decided to go south-about.

Aquila worked up a good lead, followed by Aura. Aura and Boykin gradually closed up the gap and were almost abreast of Aquila when off the lighthouse on the eastern side of Discovery Island. After passing the light, Mintaka, which had been going good, appeared out of the mist from the other direction.

In the fluky wind Aquila again worked into the lead, trailed by Boykin and Aura.

On the homeward run Aura overtook Boykin, but was unable to pass Aquila.

Japan is making progress in her advance up the Yangtze towards her goal at Hankow, but even if the provisional Chinese capital falls, the undeclared war will be far from ended, in the opinion of H. He said the Japanese may then try to close in on Canton in the south, but thought it would be improbable they would attempt to tackle the drive to Chungking, which will be the new provisional capital in the event of Hankow falling.
